Pee Dee Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Assault: Breaking Free Virtual Race

When: Entire month of October- Registration deadline is September 30th

In honor of October's National Domestic Violence Awareness Month, we are asking you to go the distance while staying socially distant! Participate throughout the ENTIRE month of October by completing one of our two challenges:

Option 1: 25 Miles in 1 Month

Option 2: Distance Challenge

Our first option challenges you to accomplish a set distance, while option 2 allows you to see just how far you can go! Awards will be provided to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd winners in both categories. We also welcome teams (up to four per team)!

Visit www.peedeecoalition.org/BreakingFree to register and get started!

As always, proceeds from this event will benefit the Emergency Safe Shelter, a shelter for women and children who have been displaced due to family violence. As our world continues to face uncertainty, these issues only grow. Join us in standing up for victims and survivors by going the (social) distance! Sign up today!
